Hi Laurie –

Here is the information that we found when we were looking for this study in June 2016:

We (HERO) marked this report as “unfindable” in June 2016.

23/Jun/16 10:35 AM Could not obtain PDF. Not much information available for this technical report by the American Biogenics Corporation from 1985. Searched Google, Google Scholar, WorldCat, NTIS/NTRL, and Toxnet.

Cited in Michigan Department of Environmental Quality tox assessment

https://www.michigan.gov/documents/deq/deq-rrd-p-CBSAToxicAssessment\_288412\_7.pdf

Full title seems to be "Final report for American Biogenics Corporation study 410-2298: Twenty-eight day oral (gavage) toxicity study in albino rats using A-100"

Also cited in a report posted by NDEP, but refers to the citation as "not seen, as cited in MDEQ 2006", which probably refers to the MDEQ report linked above.

24/Jun/16 11:42 AM

CalEPA cites it too: <http://oehha.ca.gov/media/downloads/water/report/pcbsapublichealthcon.pdf>

The CalEPA report has quite a bit of data from the report (in the CalEPA Report).

24/Jun/16 11:43 AM

A-100 = 4-Chlorobenzenesulfonic acid

We could keep searching – but I think we will still end up with a dead end.

Perhaps the Chemical Manager of the PPRTV Report has a copy of the study?

If so, we (HERO) would be happy to scan the study into HERO (assuming the study does not contain any confidential or classified information).

Let us (HERO) know if you want us to look more.

Best regards,

-Connie

Okay.

Thanks for sending the attachment Laurie.

We will look into this more tomorrow!

Hi Laurie -

Which reference is it?

Once I know what the reference is, I can see if we (HERO) can get it.

Best,

Hi Teresa,

Dr. Damian has indicated that he would like to receive a copy of the reference outlined in the attachment. This reference is listed in HERO but the full text is not available in HERO. Please let me know if it is possible to get this reference. I'll distribute to all the reviewers if so. Thanks!

Regards,
Laurie
